

Who is MCCW?

We consist of and for Catholic women associated with the military and the priest/moderators at military chapels.

Why does MCCW exist?

We exist to build community among Catholic women at Fort Carson. This community strengthens the faith life of the individual members and the Catholic community at large. MCCW groups assist the priest by supporting his ministry and mission in the Catholic community.

MCCW at the Regional and Worldwide levels exist to support the chapel level activity.

MCCW is an auxiliary of the Archdiocese for the Military Services and the US Army Chief of Chaplains Office.

All meetings and programs are held Friday's 930-1130 at Soldier's Memorial Chapel unless otherwise noted. Childcare is available during our regular meetings at the chapel.

Our Mission

The mission of MCCW is to reflect a visible presence of Christ in military communities by fostering and nourishing women in spirituality, leadership and service.

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, MCCW serves as a vital enhancement of the religious support mission of military chapels.

How do we accomplish our mission?

Chapel groups provide spiritually enriching programs, enabling women to minister to one another and the community.

At Ft. Carson we do this through Bible Study, Guest Speakers, Girls Night Out, play groups and encouraging our members to participate in various service projects like our Clothing and Toy Drive or volunteering at a local soup kitchen as a group. Our members also participate in other integral ministries throughout our parish community.
